George Alexander

George Alexander, 59, of Marlboro, died Wednesday, July 23, in the evening, due to injuries incurred in a car accident. George was born in Jersey City and resided in Bayonne for 27 years. George served as a local employee of I.B. Boesky and Company for 15 years. George was presently employed by ITS World and worked in the transportation department. George was a former player at basketball in a number of different leagues. He had a great sense of humor and lived life to the fullest. George is predeceased by his parents and brothers. He is survived by his wife, Christine, and two children, Kyle and Dyna.

Micheal Joseph Foley

Michael Joseph Foley in 1976 and together they raised their children, Shaun and Jennifer, in Fair Haven. Born in Montclair, she was raised in Bloomfield. She was a member of the St. James Roman Catholic Church and the Bayonne Historical Society. She worked in the marketing and sales department of Bell Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center in Lakewood. Born in Hartwell, Georgia, she had lived in Fair Haven before moving to Brick last year. Cathy was a member of the Fisk Chapel A.M.E. Church in Fair Haven.

Caroline J. Falco

Carmen James Falco, 90, of Kearnsburg, died Friday, July 25, spending his last days surrounded by family and friends. Carmen was born on July 17, 1924, in the Oak Shades section of Long Branch. Born in Montclair, she was raised in Bloomfield. She was a member of the St. James Roman Catholic Church and the Bayonne Historical Society. She worked in the marketing and sales department of Bell Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center in Lakewood. Born in Hartwell, Georgia, she had lived in Fair Haven before moving to Brick last year. Cathy was a member of the Fisk Chapel A.M.E. Church in Fair Haven.

Judith C. Foley

Judith Comer Foley, 87, of Ocean Grove, died Tuesday, July 29, at Jersey Shore University Medical Center in Neptune. Mrs. Foley was born on August 5, 1929, in Nutley. She was a graduate of Oakwood High School in Jersey City. She was married to John Comer in 1948. She served in the marketing and sales department of Bell Atlantic for 30 years before retiring. After her retirement, she chose to begin her second career as a volunteer assistant at Tower Hill Presbyterian Church and later at Brick Presbyterian Church. She was a devoted wife and mother to her children and a mentor to many who sought her help. She was predeceased by her husband, John Comer, in 2011. She is survived by her children, Shaun and Jennifer, in Fair Haven. She is survived by Virginia Votava and her wife Ann Marie, Anthony and his wife Jane, and her sister-in-law Jane Foley. She will be remembered by all who knew her as a kind, quiet woman who was always ready to lend a hand.

Carmen James Falco

Carmen James Falco, 90, of Kearnsburg, died Friday, July 25, spending his last days surrounded by family and friends. Carmen was born on July 17, 1924, in the Oak Shades section of Long Branch. Born in Montclair, she was raised in Bloomfield. She was a member of the St. James Roman Catholic Church and the Bayonne Historical Society. She worked in the marketing and sales department of Bell Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center in Lakewood. Born in Hartwell, Georgia, she had lived in Fair Haven before moving to Brick last year. Cathy was a member of the Fisk Chapel A.M.E. Church in Fair Haven.

Joseph D. Tennessine

Joseph Donald Tenesseine, 81, of Red Bank, formerly of Trenton Falls, died peacefully on Sunday, July 26. Joseph was born in Newark to Joseph and Donnatella (Menza) Truneri. Joseph honorably served our country in the U.S. Army from 1956-1958. He was a self-employed advertising agent prior to his retirement. Joseph is predeceased by his parents and brothers. He is survived by his wife, Linda, and his children, Daniel, Jennifer, and Ian. Joseph was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Joe J. Bilicic

James Aloysius Ward Jr., 87, of Little Silver, died peacefully on Saturday morning, July 26. James was born in Jersey City to James A. Ward Sr. and Marie (Lambert) Ward. He was a 1950 graduate of St. Peter's College. James honorably served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He retired as an advertising executive in New City, New York. James was a longtime communicant of Holy Cross Church in Rumson. James was a past officer of the University Club. James is predeceased by his parents and brothers, Francis and Robert. He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Regina (Kennedy) Ward, his daughter, Regina Ward McLean and her husband John Patrick of Rumson, his brother, John, and his wife Louise of Parun, and his brother-in-law, Efentz Moussavrian, brother-in-law, Joseph Kennedy and his wife Elena of River Edge and Thomas Kennedy of Westfield, his cherished grandchildren, Morgan Brooke McLean of Rumson and several nieces and nephews. A memorial Mass will be held at Holy Cross Church, on Tuesday, July 29. Envelopment is private.

Margaret Flaherty Ginlen

Margaret Flaherty Ginlen, Esq., formerly of Kearny, died Saturday, July 26, in Haddonfield, Conn., where she worked in the marketing and sales department of Bell Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center in Lakewood. Born in July 7, 1924. Michael Joseph Foley in 1976 and together they raised their children, Shaun and Jennifer, in Fair Haven. Born in Montclair, she was raised in Bloomfield. She was a member of the St. James Roman Catholic Church and the Bayonne Historical Society. She worked in the marketing and sales department of Bell Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center in Lakewood. Born in Hartwell, Georgia, she had lived in Fair Haven before moving to Brick last year. Cathy was a member of the Fisk Chapel A.M.E. Church in Fair Haven.

Cathryn E. Rountree

Cathryn E. Rountree, 75, of Brick, died peacefully on Wednesday, July 16, at Concord Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center in Lakewood. Born in Hartwell, Georgia, she had lived in Fair Haven before moving to Brick last year. Cathy was a member of the Fisk Chapel A.M.E. Church in Fair Haven.

Michael Joseph Foley

Michael Joseph Foley in 1976 and together they raised their children, Shaun and Jennifer, in Fair Haven. Born in Montclair, she was raised in Bloomfield. She was a member of the St. James Roman Catholic Church and the Bayonne Historical Society. She worked in the marketing and sales department of Bell Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center in Lakewood. Born in Hartwell, Georgia, she had lived in Fair Haven before moving to Brick last year. Cathy was a member of the Fisk Chapel A.M.E. Church in Fair Haven.

Jed Diamond

Jed Diamond of Knoxville, Tenn.; her grandchildren, Rachel and Matthew Gillen, Will and John Red Bank. Interm ent follow ed in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Red Bank. Memorials could be made to College of St. Elizabeth, 2 Convent Road, Morristown, NJ. 07960.