

IN MEMORIAM

Barbara Ann (Kunz) Alberts

Barbara Ann (Kunz) Alberts, 62, of Long Branch, formerly of Little Silver, died peacefully on Tuesday, July 8, with her loving family by her side. Barbara was a beautiful, selfless and loving mother, grandmother, wife, daughter, aunt and sister. For 22 years, she worked as a learning assistant at Brookdale Community College. She befriended and mentored countless students, and was an inspiration to her family, colleagues and friends. She loved the beach, sports, good food and most of all spending time with her friends and family. Her contagious smile, infectious laugh, upbeat personality and heart of gold will be missed most.

Barbara was predeceased by her parents and in June 2005 by her loving husband, Michael J. Alberts.

She is survived by her daughter, Michele; sons, Dave and wife Sarah and Dan. She is the loving grandmother of Austin and second grandson who will be born in September; devoted sister of Tom and wife Rose, Michael and Ron and wife Karen. She is also survived by her mother-in-law and father-in-law, James and Marian Alberts. She was a beloved sister-in-law, aunt and cousin to many. She will be missed dearly by all, but perhaps most by her loving and devoted dog, Magee. We love you Mom.

A memorial gathering and service were held Thursday, July 10, at the John E. Day Funeral Home, Red Bank. Interment was private.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made in Barbara's memory to Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, Attn: Donor Services, PO Box 650309, Dallas, TX 75265-0309, or, ICAN (International Cancer Advocacy Network) @askican.org.

Please visit Barbara's memorial website available at www.johne.dayfuneralhome.com.

Charlotte M. Franco

Charlotte M. Franco, 90, of Little Silver, died Thursday, July 10, in Red Bank. Charlotte moved from Oak Ridge to Rumson in 1975 and also resided in Middletown. She was a resident of Little Silver for the past 10 years. Charlotte has been a communicant of St. Anthony's of Padua R.C. Church in Red Bank since 1980. She was also a member of the St. Ann's Society and the Lazarus Committee.

Charlotte was predeceased by her husband Louis who passed away in 1992. She was also predeceased by her brothers, Peter and John Triolo and her sisters, Johanna Genualdi and Anita Van Camp.

Charlotte is survived by her son, Louis Franco and his wife Theresa of Little Silver; her daughter, Patricia Franco, of Little Silver, and her four grandchildren, Charlotte, Joseph, Juliana and Louis.

Visitation was held Sunday, July 13, at the Thompson Memorial Home, Red Bank. A Mass of Christian Burial was held Monday, July 14, at St. Anthony's of Padua R.C. Church, Red Bank. Interment followed at Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Middletown.

In lieu of flowers the family requests memorial donations be made in her memory to Sister Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Camilla Hall Project, Mission Adv Office, 1140 King Road, Immaculata, PA 19345-0200.

Martha O. Hayward

Martha O. Hayward, 99, of Seabrook Village, died peacefully on Friday, July 11. Martha was born in Jersey City to Christian and Anna (Misler) Molzon. She and her husband, John raised their children in Ridgewood, Queens. Later they retired to Silver Ridge Park West in Toms River, and then ultimately Martha joined the Seabrook Village Community. Martha was an accomplished needlepointer. She was an avid lifelong walker for necessity, as well as, enjoyment. Martha was proud of being fiercely independent and she lived on her own up until the time of her passing.

She is predeceased by her parents, three brothers, four sisters and her husband, John D. Hayward in 1978.

Martha is survived by her son, Gerard P. Hayward and wife Irene of Sea Girt; her daughter, Karen E. D'Anna and husband Joseph A. of Massapequa, N.Y.; a brother, Otto Molzon of Seabrook Village; and her grandchildren, Patrick Hayward, Eileen Fiore, Teresa Stapleton and Linda D'Anna. Also surviving are six great-grandchildren, Colin and Natalie Hayward, Ryan and Thomas Stapleton and Ava and Ella Fiore.

Visitation and a funeral service were held Monday, July 14, at the John E. Day Funeral Home, Red Bank. Interment was private.

Please visit Martha's memorial website available at www.johne.dayfuneralhome.com.

Alice Kinsella

Alice Kinsella, 83, of Belford died Sunday, July 13, in Red Bank. She was born in Staten Island, N.Y., and lived most of her life in Staten Island, later moving to Whiting and Belford in 2007. Alice worked as an EKG technician for Dr. Pasaad and many other doctors on Staten Island for many years.

Alice loved her sons, grandchildren, and great grandchildren and her travels to Atlantic City.

Surviving are her two sons, Arthur Kinsella of Belford and Michael Kinsella of Whiting; grandchildren, Kerri, Katie, Kevin, Krysta and Jessica; and great grandchildren, Brianna and Brooke.

Alice was preceded in death by husband, Michael Kinsella 2007.

Visitation was held Tuesday, July 15, at John F. Pflieger Funeral Home, Middletown. Funeral services were held Wednesday at the funeral home. Burial followed at Fair View Cemetery, Middletown.

For more information or to send condolences, please visit www.pfliegerfh.com.

Warren E. Levy

Warren E. "Pete" Levy, 90, of Laconia, N.H., formerly of New Monmouth, entered into eternal life on Monday, July 14, at Golden View Health Care Center, Meredith, N.H. He was predeceased by his mother, Sophie B. Sirois; his father, Alexander O. Levy, Sr.; his sister, Mary E. Sanders; and his wife, Mabel K. Levy. He was also predeceased by his first wife, Isabella E. Levy.

Warren was born on Feb. 20, 1924, in New York City, N.Y., and lived there before moving to New Jersey in 1940. He was employed as a communications management specialist by the U.S. Army Communications Systems Agency at Fort Monmouth and traveled to Japan, Korea, Germany, Panama and many sites within the United States on assignments for the Army. Warren received numerous awards and recognition for innovative solutions and outstanding performance during his 30-year career. He retired in 1980, and moved from N.J. to Laconia that same year.

"Pete" was best known for his accordion playing and he enjoyed performing and making people happy through music. His first instrument was the harmonica that his mother taught him to play. He purchased his first accordion in January of 1940, shortly before his 16th birthday. Pete never read music; his talent was playing "by ear." Once he heard a song, he could replicate it after a few tries. Over his lifetime, Pete delighted in playing his vast repertoire of tunes for family and friends.

After meeting his dear friend Ginny, Pete became an active member of Our Lady of the Lakes Church, and was made an honorary member of the Ladies Guild there. He eagerly participated in every activity; he could be seen helping at Christmas bazaars, bake sales, and spaghetti suppers. Pete was also a volunteer at the Society of St. Vincent de Paul food pantry for many years.

Surviving are his loving daughters, Bridget Trapanese of New Monmouth and Theresa Levy of Middletown; his grandson, Gregory Trapanese of New Monmouth; his beloved companion and dear friend, Virginia McDermott, and Virginia's son, Donald. He also is survived by his brother, Alexander O. Levy, Jr. of Meredith, N.H.; his sister and brother-in-law, Barbara and Frank Harwood of Middletown; several nieces and nephews, and many friends.

Visitation will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Friday, July 18, at Wilkinson-Beane Simoneau-Paquette Funeral Home, 164 Pleasant St., Laconia, N.H. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Saturday, July 19, at 10 a.m. at Saint Andre Bessette Parish - Sacred Heart Church, 291 Union Ave., Laconia. Interment will be at Fairview Cemetery, Middletown.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Central New Hampshire VNA & Hospice, 780 Main St., Laconia, NH 03246.

James C. McCowan Jr.

James C. McCowan Jr., 71, of Tinton Falls died Tuesady, July 8, after a long illness. He was predeceased by his father James, Sr., his mother Atha Carter and two brothers.

He was a career soldier who served two tours in Vietnam. James retired from the Army after 22 distinguished years.

Following his military career, he moved his family to New Jersey, working 26 years at Fort Monmouth, retiring as a logistic management specialist. James was a loving family man who will be missed, but never forgotten.

He is survived by his devoted wife Sandra (nee Russell); three children, Steven Willis (Shelley) of Austin, Texas, Dawn Shields and James, III, of Tinton Falls; two granddaughters who stole his heart, Madison and Sidney Shields; three stepgrandsons, Darrin Shields of Freehold, and Rosario and Ehjah Lombardo of Austin, Texas; his sister, Marie Plummer of Pittsburgh, Pa.; and several other relatives.

A graveside rite of committal service was held Saturday, July 12, at Woodbine Cemetery, Oceanport. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of the Thompson Memorial Home, Red Bank.

In lieu of flowers, if desired, memorial donations may be made to Lunch Break, 121 Drs. James Parker Blvd., Red Bank, NJ 07701, or to Monmouth and Ocean Counties FoodBank, 3300 Route 66, Neptune, NJ 07753.

Marilyn Phyllis McSherry

Marilyn Phyllis McSherry, beloved mother, and wife of the late Luke Kenneth McSherry of Highlands, died peacefully on Jan. 24, at her home in Lutherville, Maryland, surrounded by family. She was 91. A native of New York City, Marilyn was born Miroslawa Ophelia on July 13, 1922, to Harry Tarnopolsky and Sophie Jaremchuk Tarnopolsky, both from Ukraine. Her brother, Eugene, now deceased, lived with his family in Columbus, Ohio.

Educated as a chemist, Marilyn was a graduate of the Ukrainian National School of New York, Julia Richman High School for Girls and Hunter College for Women. In 1939, Marilyn relocated Red Bank, working as a medical technologist and co-director of Red Bank Clinical Laboratories. In 1957, she joined Radiation Associates, Kilocycle Hill, Highlands, serving side-by-side with her husband until his death in 1980. Marilyn relocated to Baltimore in 1990 after the birth of her first granddaughter.

A keen reader and traveler, Marilyn's sense of adventure and soft heart are cherished by all who knew her.

She is survived by daughters, Nancy Collins and Laurel McSherry; granddaughters, Emily and Grace Collins; and son-in-law, Steven.

A private ceremony was held on Jan. 24. Burials will take place at the Church of Saint Gabriel, Marlboro, and Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Maspeth, Long Island.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to the Red Bank Public Library, 84 W. Front St., Red Bank, NJ 07701 or at www.redbanklibrary.org/.

Charles E. Paradis

Charles E. Paradis, 80, of Port Monmouth, died on July 9, at CareOne at King James in Atlantic Highlands. He was born in Newark to the late Arthur and Gertrude Paradis. Charles proudly served in the United States Army during the Korean War. He then worked as an oil truck driver for Lawes Oil Company, Shrewsbury, for 46 years before retiring in 2006.

Surviving are his wife of 57 years, Lillian Bush Paradis; his two sons, Charles J. Paradis of Leonardo and Michael D. and his wife Terry Paradis of Citrus Springs, Fla.; his six grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren, and his great-great-grandchild.

Visitation was held Friday, July 11, at John F. Pflieger Funeral Home, Middletown. Funeral services were held Saturday, July 12, at the funeral home. Burial followed at Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Middletown.

For more information or to send condolences, please visit www.pfliegerfh.com.

Robert Richards

Robert Richards, 28, of Keyport died Friday, July 11. He was born in New Brunswick and lived in Keyport for the last 10 years. He had a passion for fishing, crabbing, dirt biking and tree climbing. He always put his family first and especially loved spending time with his nieces and nephews.

Surviving are his mother, Denise Hennessy and her partner, George Mott; three brothers, Sherrill Richards, Jr., William and his wife Shanin Richards and Carl and his wife Amanda Richards; two sisters, Mary Richards and her husband David D' Aiuto and Melissa Medina and her partner Heather Richards; stepbrother, Edward Ball; stepsister, Kathryn Ball; favorite uncle, Sherrill Richards, Sr. and his wife Nancy; seven loving nieces and nephews; as well as his uncles, aunts, and close family friend, Tiffany Evens.

Robert was preceded in death by his father Jackie Blanken. Visitation was held on Tuesday, July 15, at John F. Pflieger Funeral Home, Middletown.

Contributions to the family would be greatly appreciated. For more information or to send condolences, please visit www.pfliegerfh.com.

Henry A. Schauer

Henry "Hank" A. Schauer, 85, of Navesink died Friday July 4, at the Arnold Walter Nursing Home in Hazlet. He was born in Long Branch and lived in Thompson Falls, Montana before moving to Navesink in 2012.

Hank was a graduate of Monmouth College, Long Branch, a member of the Littoral Society and very active in its tag and release program. A member of Trout Unlimited, he lived to fish. He was also an endowment member of the N.R.A.

He honorably served our country in the Marines during World War II. Hank retired as a Fort Monmouth employee in its nuclear radiation effects area after 30 years of service.

He was predeceased by his parents, Henry and Adalaid Schauer.

Hank is survived by his beloved wife of 19 years, Valerie Ann Schauer and his son, Henry L. Schauer.

A memorial service was held Saturday July 19, at the All Saints' Episcopal Church in Navesink. Interment was private.

Memorial donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, Greater New Jersey Chapter, 400 Morris Ave., Suite 251, Denville NJ 07934.

Please visit Hank's memorial website at www.johndayfuneralhome.com.

Eldon "Steve" Tabor

Eldon "Steve" Tabor, 63, of Port Monmouth, died on Monday, July 14, at Bayshore Health Care Center in Holmdel. He was born in Newark and lived in Elizabeth before settling in Port Monmouth in 1994. Steve served in the United States Naval Reserve during the Vietnam War. He worked as security guard after leaving the Navy and was his mother's caretaker until she passed away last year. Steve enjoyed collecting cars and watching old movies. He loved pets and was a happy go-lucky person.

Surviving are his brother and sister-in-law, Michael J. and Lisa Phillips; his nephews and niece, Ryan, Matthew, Evan, and the Princess, Holly; his aunt, Laverne Davis; and his uncle, Stephen Bloom.

Steve was preceded in death by his mother, Cornelia Phillips, and his father, John Phillips, Jr.

Visitation was held Thursday, July 17, at John F. Pflieger Funeral Home, Middletown, which handled all funeral arrangements.

For more information or to send condolences, please visit www.pfliegerfh.com.

Marianna R. Toccaceli

Marianna R. Toccaceli, 98, of Little Silver, formerly of Red Bank, died at home on Saturday, July 12, surrounded by her loving family. "Anna" was born in New York City to Antonio and Teresa (Gattuso) Lucisano. She was a lifelong communicant of St. Anthony of Padua R.C. Church in Red Bank, and was a member of the St. Ann's Society.

She was a seamstress for 52 years and a member of the ILGWA Local 130. She was a 25-year employee of Eisner Clothing Manufacturers, where she proudly made Army uniforms during World War II. Marianna then went on to retire from Atlantic Clothing in Red Bank.

Anna was a loving daughter, wife, mother and grandmother and great-grandmother. Her family meant everything to her.

Marianna was predeceased by her parents, and in 1977, by her husband Hugo; by brothers, Lawrence, Anthony, Steven and Frank; and sisters, Mary DeConie, Rose Foderaro and Angie Schena.

She is survived by her son, Joseph and wife Denise of Tinton Falls; daughters, Iris Sherman and husband Richard of Little Silver and Anne Szczurek and husband Ted of Oceanport; grandchildren, Marissa, Joseph and Lisa Toccaceli, Christine Nagy, Pamela Walters, Michael Szczurek and Lauren Jackman; and great-grandchildren, Alexa, Anthony, Aaliyah, William, Kyle, Olivia and Jack.

Visitation was held on Wednesday, July 16, at John E. Day Funeral Home, Red Bank. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Anthony of Padua R.C. Church on Thursday, July 17. Interment followed at Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Middletown.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the VNA Hospice Program.

Please visit Marianna's memorial website available at www.johndayfuneralhome.com.

