CULINARY DELIGHT AT THE 11TH ANNUAL CPC BEHAVIORAL HEALTHCARE FOOD TASTING

CPC Behavioral Healthcare recently welcomed more than 280 guests to Trump National Golf Club in Colts Neck for its 11th Annual Culinary Adventure. This evening of scrumptious fare featured gourmet tastings from some of Monmouth County's best restaurants as well as delicious desserts and specialty beverages. This year's event was elevated thanks to a special Chef's Demo featuring the award-winning local foodie favorite, Drew Araneo of Drew's Bayshore Bistro in Keyport. Araneo studied under beloved Monmouth County restaurateur, Joe Romanowski, is a James Beard nominee for Best Regional Chef, and winner of Beat Bobby Flay. All proceeds from the event will help CPC provide subsidized counseling services to children and families in need. The Agency hosts several events each year to raise funds in support of its mission to provide quality mental healthcare to Monmouth County residents who cannot afford it. Last year, CPC served more than 8,000 people in Monmouth County with a variety of behavioral health services. For more information call CPC's Development Office at 732-935-2222. John Mans (left) is CPC's president and CEO. He is joined by Kerry Herbert (CPC Vice President of Development), Barbara Etter (auction chair), Pat Geiss and Jane Guadagno (event co-chairs) and Don Glaser (chair of the CPC board of trustees).

PREFERRED FOUNDATION'S "A NIGHT OF EXCELLENCE"

"A Night of Excellence" was recently held at the Manasquan River Golf Club in Brielle and honored two individuals and one group for their leadership in the fight against drugs in our community, specifically, the heroin epidemic. Preferred Behavioral Health Group (a partner of Prevention First) is a non-profit comprehensive behavioral health care provider serving Monmouth and Ocean Counties with a full array of services including mental health and substance abuse treatment programs. The event honored Prosecutor Joseph D. Coronato (second from left, Press Communications, LLC) and Richie Sambora (founding member of Bon Jovi). Assemblywoman Mary Pat Angelini (left) is the CEO of PBHG and is joined by board members Grace Hanlon (executive director of tourism for the State of N.J.) and JC Addison.

Press Communications, LLC representatives included (from left): Dee Pellegrino, Tom DeVoy, Nina Lippart and AJ Colantoni. Fun 107.1 Radio raised funds and awareness through 107 consecutive hours on the air (coordinated by Dee Pellegrino) to fight the heroin epidemic. $25,000 was pledged by the Jules L. Plangere Jr. Family Foundation as well as many other donations.

HARVEST MOON CHEF'S SOIREE WILL BENEFIT AUTISM SPEAKS

John Weiss (left) is the N.J. Chapter board chairman of Autism Speaks and is joined by Susan Belfer (board member), Diane Henderiks, Dina Schwab (executive director of the N.J. Chapter), and Matt Ryan (auctioneer) of 94.3 The Point Radio, an event sponsor.

Autism Speaks is the world's leading autism science and advocacy organization. It is dedicated to funding research into the causes, prevention, treatments and a cure for autism, increasing awareness of autism spectrum disorders and advocating for the needs of individuals with autism and their families. Autism Speaks recently held its first special event in New Jersey, at the Ocean Place Resort and Spa. The Harvest Moon Chef's Soiree featured the culinary creations of 10 chefs some of whom are pictured here: Paul Diomedea (Sea Bright Fish Company), Joe Raccioppi (McLoone's Pier House), Mike Jurusz (Chef Mike's ABG), Diane Henderiks (event chair, of Diane Henderiks Catering), Phil Deffina (David Burke Fromagerie), sous chef Amanda Hamblin, Michelle Spell (Ava's Cupcakes) and Eric LeVine (Morris Tap & Grill and Paragon Tap & Table). Missing from photo: Chefs Josip Franc, George Galati, and Marilyn Schlossbach. Monmouth University's Pollak Theater will be hosting A Marvelous Night - The Music of Van Morrison on Thanksgiving Eve (Nov. 26th) featuring Rob Paparozzi, Pat Guadagno and N.J. musical nobility to benefit Autism Speaks. To purchase tickets visit www.monmouth.edu/arts or call 732-263-6889.

A GOOD TIME WAS HAD BY ALL AT HOE DOWN FOR HORIZONS!

Mary Ann Baret, Hilary DiPiero, Jane Orr, Maggie Riker, Nikki Alpert and Donna Gibson are all Horizons board members.

The Horizons Student Enrichment Program held a hootin' and hollerin' time at "A Hoedown for Horizons" held at the Rumson Country Club Riverhouse. Cowgirls and cowboys wore their "best western" gear and enjoyed dancing to the sounds of "Jakes Country Band." Entering its 19th year, Horizons is a transformational community-centered program proven to close the achievement gap for low-income children and to put them on the path to success in school and life. Anchored by a six-week summer program based at the Rumson Country Day School's generously donated facilities, Horizons delivers a multi-year learning experience outside the typical school day. Horizons and the Count Basie Theatre's Arts Outreach and Education Programs will be the beneficiaries of the HOPE Concert VII, featuring Jersey Shore Legend Bobby Bandiera and friends scheduled for December 22nd. Live auction chair Mary Ann Baret (left) is pictured with Board President Maggie Riker, event co-chair Teresa Maguire, décor chair Melanie Landers, event co-chair Carol Kane and Executive Director Lori Hohenleitner.

Libby Kirsch, Tony Golsch, Maryam Spector and Kara Dockery enjoyed the Hoedown! Tony Glosch is the owner of The Golden Goose in Rumson and was an auction donor for the event.

Count Basie Theatre CEO Adam Philipson and director of development Shannon Eadon wore clever disguises and had lots of fun with the western theme!

RAINBOW FOUNDATION HELD "GALA AT MONTE CARLO" TO CELEBRATE 30TH ANNIVERSARY

The Rainbow Foundation was started 30 years ago to provide "financial first aid" to families with seriously ill children. The kids they help come from various outlets but all are dealing with serious illness. The agency comes to the rescue with prosthetics, wheelchairs and other medical equipment. They pay medical bills, hospital stays and provide money to families suffering huge financial crisis as a result of their child's illness. The Gala at Monte Carlo was recently held at the Ocean Place Resort and Spa and was the biggest event of the year for The Rainbow Foundation. The event honored the Holmdel Kiwanis Foundation with the 2014 Thomas V. Karaban Humanitarian Award. The late Thomas Karaban and his wife Margaret are the co-founders of the Rainbow Foundation. Board members include (from left): Gail Bechtoldt, Christine Thorn, Jackie Catalano and Karrie Johnson.

S.N.A.P.S. WILL RECEIVE FUNDS FROM HALLOWEEN "OPEN MIC" CELEBRATION

S.N.A.P.S. is a non-profit organization founded in 1987 which advocates for the non-lethal control of the feral cat population by the methods of trapping, testing, sterilizing, vaccinating and releasing, or adopting into a supportive environment. S.N.A.P.S. aims to educate the public about the importance of spaying and neutering pets to prevent animal abandonment and overpopulation and as an alternative to suffering and euthanasia. Molly Maguire's Gastropub recently hosted a Halloween Open Mic to raise funds for S.N.A.P.S. and the venue was packed with local musicians who came dressed as the artist whose song they were covering. The costumes were very creative and the music was great! The event organizers came dressed as the Beatles. From left: Bobby D'Onofrio, Todd Goldin, Carol Barbieri, Mike Penny, W. Dimitris Kulaga and Charlie Hengartner.

The evening's judges included John Kinneary, Laura Catalina Johnson, Herbi Freeman, and Maureen Grimaldi dressed up as the judges from American Idol with S.N.A.P.S. representative Gina Palazzo (right).

FIRST LADY'S RELIEF FUND MARKS SECOND SANDY ANNIVERSARY VOLUNTEERING AT FOODBANK OF MONMOUTH & OCEAN COUNTIES

On the second anniversary of Hurricane Sandy, First Lady Mary Pat Christie visited The FoodBank of Monmouth & Ocean Counties. The FoodBank is the recipient of a $500,000 grant from the Hurricane Sandy New Jersey Relief Fund, chaired by First Lady Mary Pat Christie. The amount awarded by the Hurricane Sandy New Jersey Relief Fund since the storm now totals nearly $37.2 million. The FoodBank of Monmouth & Ocean Counties secures and distributes close to 10 million pounds of food annually to a network of approximately 300 partner agencies who in turn feed over 131,000 people in Monmouth and Ocean Counties. In addition to food distribution, the FoodBank works toward long-term solutions to the chronic problem of food insecurity with programs such as a Culinary Career Training Program, SNAP (food stamps) outreach, free tax preparation and nutrition education. First Lady Mary Pat Christie is pictured here with Carlos Rodriguez (left, FoodBank Executive Director) and Don Norkus (FoodBank board of trustees president).
